Through this policy and its underlying procedures, Invst attempts to secure the confidentiality of customer records and information and protect against anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of customer records and information.

It is the policy of Invst to restrict access to all current and former clients’ information (i.e., information and records pertaining to personal background, investment objectives, financial situation, tax information/returns, investment holdings, account numbers, account balances, etc.) to those employees and affiliated/nonaffiliated entities who need to know that information in order to provide products or services in furtherance of the client’s engagement of Invst. In that regard, Invst may disclose the client’s information: (1) to individuals and/or entities not affiliated with Invst, including, but not limited to the client’s other professional advisors and/or certain service providers that may be recommended or engaged by Invst in furtherance of the client’s engagement of Invst (i.e., attorney, accountant, insurance agent, broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, record keeper, proxy management service provider, etc.); (2) required to do so by judicial or regulatory process; or (3) otherwise permitted to do so in accordance with the parameters of applicable federal and/or state privacy regulations. The disclosure of information contained in any document completed by the client for processing and/or transmittal by Invst to facilitate the commencement/continuation/termination of a business relationship between the client and/or between Invst and a nonaffiliated third party service provider (i.e., broker-dealer, investment adviser, account custodian, record keeper, insurance company, etc.), including, but not limited to, information contained in any document completed and/or executed by the client in furtherance of the client’s engagement of Invst (i.e., advisory agreement, client information form, etc.), shall be deemed as having been automatically authorized by the client with respect to the corresponding nonaffiliated third party service provider.

Invst permits only authorized employees and affiliates who have signed a copy of Invst’s Privacy Policy to have access to client information. Employees violating Invst’s Privacy Policy will be subject to Invst’s disciplinary process. Additionally, whenever Invst hires other organizations to provide services to Invst’s clients, Invst will require them to sign confidentiality agreements and/or the Privacy Policy.
